

CCARC HONORS ITS PARTNERS

Farmington, Connecticut, May 10, 2007 - The venue was inviting and the crowd enthusiastic as CCARC hosted its 55th Annual Meeting and Dinner at the Farmington-Marriott on May 10. There, volunteers, community partners, CCARC participants and their families and others joined to celebrate in the strides CCARC has taken over the past year.

Several area businesses were honored as CCARC Partners for their outstanding support of persons with mental retardation and other disabilities.

The Partners in Business award was presented to Kaestle Boos Associates in New Britain to recognize the important role the architectural firm has played in the agency's growth over the past decade, including the being the architect for the American Savings Foundation CCARC Education and Training Center on Slater Road, which opened in 2004. Charles Boos, KBA President and CEO, serves on the agency's board of directors.

Kaestle Boos Associates, Inc., is one of New England's most experienced architectural design firms with offices in New Britain, Connecticut, Foxboro, Massachusetts, and Portsmouth, New Hampshire. The firm specializes in educational, public safety, theater arts, parks and recreation and other public architecture. Founded in 1963, the firm's ultimate goal is to create structures that are functional, aesthetically pleasing, environmentally sound, and economically justifiable. For more information visit www.kba-architects.com or call (860) 229-0361.

(Portions Reprinted from "Sharing the Dream," the Central Connecticut Association for Retarded Citizens (CCARC) newsletter.)

-end